Smoothstone's solutions combine to bring the benefits of unified IP communications to enterprises quickly and reliably.

Upon completion of the acquisition, expected in the second quarter of 2011 after satisfaction of certain closing conditions including customary regulatory approvals, Smoothstone will become a part of West's Unified Communications operating segment. The Smoothstone product portfolio will be available to West's wide base of clients, adding IP telephony to a growing list of West's unified communications solutions.

"Our leadership position in unified communications is further enhanced with the Smoothstone acquisition," said Tom Barker, CEO. "We now have the ability to offer our clients a broad, unique and reliable set of products covering all areas of UC - including conferencing and collaboration, virtual events, messaging, telephony, networks and mobile solutions. Reconciliation of Financial Measures

The common definition of EBITDA is "Earnings Before Interest Expense, Taxes, Depreciation and Amortization." In evaluating liquidity, we use earnings before interest expense, share based compensation, taxes, depreciation and amortization, minority interest, non-recurring litigation settlement costs, other non-cash reserves, transaction costs and after acquisition synergies and excluding unrestricted subsidiaries, or "Adjusted EBITDA." EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA are not measures of financial performance or liquidity under generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"). EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA should not be considered in isolation or as a substitute for net income, cash flows from operations or other income or cash flows data prepared in accordance with GAAP. Adjusted EBITDA, as presented, may not be comparable to similarly titled measures of other companies. Adjusted EBITDA is presented as we understand certain investors use it as one measure of our historical ability to service debt. Adjusted EBITDA is also used in our debt covenants, although the precise adjustments used to calculate Adjusted EBITDA included in our credit facility and indentures vary in certain respects among such agreements and from those presented below. Set forth below is a reconciliation of EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA to cash flows from operations.
