

Notified Extends Partnership with Canadian Investor Relations Institute; Affirming Commitment to Advancing Technology in IR

April 2, 2024

Relationship Represents Notified's Continued Commitment to Empowering Investor Relations Professionals with Industry-Leading, AI-Enabled Technology

NEW YORK, April 02, 2024 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Notified, a globally trusted technology partner for public relations, investor relations, and marketing professionals, today announced that it has renewed its national strategic partnership with the Canadian Investor Relations Institute (CIRI). The partnership, originally established in May of 2023, represents Notified's ongoing commitment to the Investor Relations (IR) community and to driving innovation using emerging technology. The organizations will collaborate on new educational initiatives and content that will directly benefit CIRI members and elevate the IR profession across Canada and abroad.

"Notified and CIRI's strategic partnership reflects our shared dedication to providing IR professionals with the resources they need to navigate today's challenging capital markets landscape, and to securely leverage artificial intelligence (AI) to control their narrative and deepen engagement across stakeholders," said Nimesh Davé, President, Notified. "We're thrilled to continue our work with CIRI, to create engaging content and educational opportunities – enabling its members to explore AI implementation and responsible use."

"Investor relations is a very dynamic and evolving profession," stated Nathalie Megann, CIPR, President and Chief Executive Officer, CIRI. "The continuation of this National Strategic Partnership with Notified – one of the world's premier service providers in communication solutions – will help inspire and create meaningful professional development programs and innovative thought-provoking events to benefit our valued members."

CIRI is Canada's professional association of executives responsible for communication between public corporations, investors, and the financial community. CIRI is dedicated to advancing the stature and credibility of the investor relations profession and the competency of its members, by facilitating peer-to-peer support and networking; developing resources on best and emerging IR practices such as ESG, Sustainability, Cybersecurity and AI; and setting the standards for IR education and professional certification/designation (CIPR). CIRI supports and enables its members' commitment to the integrity of transparent capital markets and the success of their organization while fulfilling their ambitious career aspirations.
